That's Why Vicki Walker Stopped the Sale of Unsafe Cribs in Oregon.

In 2000, my husband Rob and I lost our infant son by suffocation when his poorly designed crib collapsed on him at his day care center.

Although we couldn't bring Rasheed back, we dedicated ourselves to the cause that no other child should suffer the same fate.

I contacted Vicki Walker and told her our family's story. Within two days, she drafted and introduced a bill in the legislature.

Vicki got Salem to listen to us, and the Infant Crib Safety Act was passed into law. Now, all cribs sold in Oregon have to meet higher safety standards.

Every parent knows there's nothing worse than losing a child. Thanks to Vicki's work, we know our son's all-too-short life made a difference for thousands of other parents and children around the state.
